

Did you know?

Queen Charlotte loved plants. She worked to make sure that that Kew Gardens in England had different plants from all over the world. Many of these plants still grow in Kew Gardens today.

The CHARLOTTE MUSEUM
of HISTORY

Did you know?

Queen Charlotte married George III of England who was known as "Mad King George." Charlotte took care of him when was having a hard time remembering how to be a king.

The
CHARLOTTE MUSEUM
of HISTORY

Did you know?

Queen Charlotte was from Mecklenburg-Strelitz in what is today Germany. She moved to England when she married King George III.

The
CHARLOTTE MUSEUM
of HISTORY

Did you know?

Charlotte is known as the Queen City in honor of Queen Charlotte of England. When Charlotte was founded in 1768, North Carolina was a part of Great Britain and Charlotte was the Queen.

The
CHARLOTTE MUSEUM
of HISTORY

Did you know?

Queen Charlotte loved music. She made sure that Mozart, Bach, and Handel - three very famous composers - all had the opportunity to perform their works in England. We still listen to their music today.

The CHARLOTTE MUSEUM
of HISTORY

Did you know?

Queen Charlotte hated that she did not get to go to school, so she made sure all her children had the opportunity to learn. She thought learning was important in order for people to succeed.

The CHARLOTTE MUSEUM
of HISTORY

Did you know?

Not all people in the British Empire were as lucky as Queen Charlotte. Many enslaved people from Africa were forced to work on sugar plantations. Queen Charlotte worked to stop the use of sugar in order to try to stop the slave trade from growing.

The CHARLOTTE MUSEUM
of HISTORY

