

Lisa V. Gray has more than 25 years' experience in non-profit management. She has been an independent consultant since 2007, providing marketing, fundraising, and business development strategies to nonprofits throughout the Charlotte region. In addition, she serves as an Interim Executive with LevRidge Resources, a firm that strengthens nonprofit organizations with innovative consulting and interim executive services. Through LevRidge Resources, Lisa has had interim executive-director engagements with such organizations as Mooresville Soup Kitchen and Matthews HELP Center. She has also served as interim grant writer for LevRidge clients WFAE Public Radio and Pat's Place.

Previously, Lisa served in executive staff positions at WDAV Classical Public Radio, Charlotte Trolley, Inc., GoCarolinas.com, and the Blumenthal Performing Arts Center.