

THE CHARLOTTE MUSEUM OF HISTORY TEMPORARILY CLOSED DUE TO COVID-19 PANDEMIC

CHARLOTTE, N.C., March 16, 2020 – The Charlotte Museum of History is temporarily closed starting today, March 16, in order to support the health of our visitors, volunteers and staff as our community works to slow the spread of COVID-19.

The museum will be closed until at least March 31, and all museum programs, events and activities are suspended. We will continue to actively monitor this situation as circumstances evolve, and we will follow guidance from local, state and federal authorities about the best ways to promote public health.

During this closure, museum staff will continue working with local schools to provide digital learning opportunities for students studying remotely.

We will announce any further updates on our website and social media channels.

About The Charlotte Museum of History

The Charlotte Museum of History engages a broad audience in the history of the Charlotte region through the stories of its people, places and events to promote dialogue and historical perspective. The museum is the steward of the 1774 Alexander Rock House and home site, a site listed on the National Register of Historic Places and the oldest home in Mecklenburg County. To learn more, visit charlottemuseum.org and follow the museum on Facebook and Twitter (@CLThistory) and Instagram (@charlottemuseumofhistory).
