

EXPLORE THE HISTORY OF BEER IN THE CAROLINAS AND ENJOY MUSEUM AFTER HOURS

CHARLOTTE, N.C., March 10, 2020 – The Charlotte Museum of History will host its second “Taste of History” event on April 9. This adults-only program will dive into the history and culture of beer in North Carolina and will give visitors after-hours admission to the museum and its exhibits.

Taste of History: Beer! includes a flight of beer, samples and ideas for food pairings, a commemorative glass and a laugh-and-learn discussion with Tom Cole, special collections librarian at the Charlotte-Mecklenburg Library and home-brewer extraordinaire.

The event is part of the museum’s new Taste of History series that lets visitors explore the roots of adult beverages with local history and beverage experts.

How to Go

Taste of History: Beer! is Thursday, April 9, 6:30-8:30 p.m. at The Charlotte Museum of History, 3500 Shamrock Drive. Tickets are $40 at charlottemuseum.org.

About The Charlotte Museum of History

The Charlotte Museum of History engages a broad audience in the history of the Charlotte region through the stories of its people, places and events to promote dialogue and historical perspective. The museum is the steward of the 1774 Alexander Rock House and home site, a site listed on the National Register of Historic Places and the oldest home in Mecklenburg County.
