FORMER CHARLOTTE MAYOR ANTHONY FOXX SPEAKS AT MUSEUM EVENT

Foxx to cover his career and his work fighting racism and advocating for equity

CHARLOTTE, N.C., June 28, 2021 – Join The Charlotte Museum of History for a live streamed event with former Charlotte Mayor and U.S. Transportation Secretary Anthony Foxx on Thursday, July 22. Foxx will discuss his career, issues of equity in transportation and infrastructure and his work combatting racism in various roles, including as chair of Davidson College’s Commission on Race and Slavery. Foxx is currently the chief policy officer and senior advisor to the president & CEO at Lyft.

This program is part of the Ron Hankins “History Talks” Lecture Series at the history museum, sponsored by Wells Fargo. The program was originally planned for June 10 as part of the African American Heritage Festival.

How to attend

The lecture will be live streamed on the museum’s YouTube and Facebook channels on Thursday, July 22, at 6 p.m. No registration is needed for this free event.

About The Charlotte Museum of History

The Charlotte Museum of History exists to save and share the Charlotte region’s history, helping create a better understanding of the past and inspiring dialogue about the future. The museum is the steward of the 1774 Hezekiah Alexander Rock House and homesite, which is listed on the National Register of Historic Places and is the oldest home in Mecklenburg County. Visit charlottemuseum.org and follow the museum on Facebook, Instagram and Twitter. The museum is an independent 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization.
